

The Story of a Boston Girl
By ELENORE MEHERIN

SUDBURY, HUFFED AT FORD'S SLIGHT, PLOTS "REVENGE"

WOULD RUN HIM FOR OFFICE

Then These Subtle Schemers Would Elect His Opponent at Polls

There appeared today to be a strong demand out in South Sudbury to have Henry Ford, the new owner of the Howe Tavern, run for selectman. The annual Town Meeting will be held on the third Monday in March.

The boys don't want to elect Henry, they want to get a crack at him. It's the guards, the armed men of the village who have plotted the overthrow of the selectman, the annual Town Meeting will be held on the third Monday in March.

The boys don't want to elect Henry, they want to get a crack at him. It's the guards, the armed men of the village who have plotted the overthrow of the selectman, the annual Town Meeting will be held on the third Monday in March.

But what gets on South Sudbury's nerves is the idea that the richest man in the world should believe it necessary to post an army around his grounds in order to keep the "common folks" away. Sudbury feels "huffed."

BARS WERE UP TIGHT.

From the time the Ford party arrived at the old Howe Tavern last Friday evening the Ford guests but little to do, but also a way to get on the town. The Ford party was about eight "shoots" an hour. "No body admitted without an invitation," "Sorry," "Mr. Ford does not like to see newspaper men," he will "glad to meet them on Monday at a hotel, in Boston." "It doesn't make any difference what the subject is, old man, Ford will not see you."

But except in one instance, the Ford guests have not had to wait for any resident of South Sudbury. "If Ford wants to be let alone," Sudbury says, "Sudbury will let him alone, and be hanged to him."

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

SOCIETY WOMEN GUESTS AT FORD'S JAZZ PARTY

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

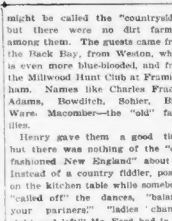

CATHERINE ADAMS

The mean old guards couldn't see it. Told her to "try again," after Mrs. Ford's guests have gone. "The very best" and the pretty girl.

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

CATHERINE ADAMS

The mean old guards couldn't see it. Told her to "try again," after Mrs. Ford's guests have gone. "The very best" and the pretty girl.

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

CATHERINE ADAMS

The mean old guards couldn't see it. Told her to "try again," after Mrs. Ford's guests have gone. "The very best" and the pretty girl.

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

CATHERINE ADAMS

The mean old guards couldn't see it. Told her to "try again," after Mrs. Ford's guests have gone. "The very best" and the pretty girl.

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

CATHERINE ADAMS

The mean old guards couldn't see it. Told her to "try again," after Mrs. Ford's guests have gone. "The very best" and the pretty girl.

HILL-BLOODED GUESTS.

Henry's bloody hunt party was a great success. There were several guests from what in story books

DANCED AT WAYSIDE INN WITH HENRY

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

Left to right, Mrs. Albert L. White, Mrs. John P. Bowditch of Boston; Mrs. Dorothy Neff of Framingham. All were present at the party given by Henry Ford at his home in Sudbury. Local residents were huffed by Ford's failure to invite them.

GRIFFS BACK TO HIS OWN COUNTRY

Lieutenant Freed by Hearst Papers Greeted by Sister at New York

By KARL H. VAN WHELAN.

On Board Albert Ballin, off Sandy Hook, Feb. 11.—(Universal Wireless)—Lieutenant Carlisle Griffin, privateer knight errant of the American Legion, who was imprisoned in Germany during an attempt to bring back to America for trial Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, fugitive draft dodger, and who was pardoned through the efforts of the British Bureau of Universal Service, heard the news of his release, the latest passenger on the liner Ballin, and the most eager of all to see the Statue of Liberty again.

The sickly appearance and pronounced prison pallor which marked him when he got out of Mauthausen Prison and placed him on board the steamer at Cuxhaven last given way to a healthy color and the return of his former keen spirit.

The voyage of nearly two weeks has done him much good, giving him time to recover from his prison life.

He has gained ten pounds in weight, which speaks well for his appetite and the cuisine of the Albert Ballin. Not once was he seen sick. Despite the very rough voyage which was encountered, GRIFFS MAZED.

Griffin was almost overwhelmed with amazement when I communicated to him the details of the reception prepared for him upon his arrival in New York this morning.

He declared he could not understand why he should be showered with honors such as are accorded to the most distinguished visitors. It was particularly happy when he learned that his parents and sister had been brought to New York and would be the first to greet him.

Comparatively few of the passengers aboard the Ballin knew of Griffin's return. He was met by a group of American Legion members.

Griffin is arriving in a borrowed suit, contributed by Captain P. N. and the United States Treasury Department, one of the passengers on the Ballin.

Big Reception Awaits Griffin in New York

New York, Feb. 11.—A hearty welcome will be extended to Lieutenant Griffin when the Ballin reaches quarantine today.

Griffin is a notable young man, met by a notable group, comprising men of international importance and veterans whose campaigns were to their country has made them figures in national history.

FIGHT CONVICTS AS EXPLOSION ROCKS JAIL

Riot in Penitentiary Follows Suspected Plot on Part of Prisoners

Pittsburgh, Feb. 11.—A riotous explosion shattered the big gates at the main entrance to the Western Penitentiary in Lower Allegheny today.

A few minutes later a riot was in progress. Reports of firing from the interior of the stockade were taken to mean that guards were shooting over the heads of the convicts to intimidate them.

A fire alarm brought several companies to the prison, but instead of opening the doors to permit entrance of the apparatus, the firemen were admitted one at a time, indicating to those outside that there was serious trouble in the prison yard.

A guard at the gate said two men had been killed in the explosion, but that he was not certain whether they were convicts or guards.

The county detective bureau was advised that some of the convicts were armed and the prison forces held for duty in other sections of the county were rushed to the prison.

An overseer and an assistant deputy warden were said to have been killed in the fighting.

According to reports, guards have captured the riot and sent the convicts back to their cells.

Several hundred convicts were taken to the prison in motor cars.

FOUR SHOTS HALT FLEEING PAIR IN AUTO

Two Robbery youths who "bounced" an automobile "were captured after a mile chase when the young diving it became frightened at the fourth shot from the pursuing policeman and drove the car into a ditch."

The boys, Francis T. Hannon, sixteen years old, 120 Grand street, and Lee Munn, seventeen years old, 101 N. Broadway street, are at the police station, charged with unlawful appropriation of an automobile.

RIVAL TO ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE THREATENS

New York, Feb. 11.—Many Protestant clergymen are dissatisfied with the management of the Anti-Saloon League. New York clergymen are considering formation of a new organization to carry on the work of prohibition, according to Rev. Dr. F. M. H. Hannon, pastor of the Central Church of the Diocese.

THIEVES RANSACK TWO QUINCY HOMES

Two Quincy homes were looted on the second floor hallway of the building, located at No. 20 Hedley avenue, from an estimated $500 worth of goods.

The home of Mrs. B. A. Grant, 21 Elm avenue, was entered and clothing worth $150, including a $100 white coat, was stolen.

As Mrs. Frank E. Lahn entered her home, No. 27 Bromfield street, a man rushed out and disappeared some time saving ramps and money was taken.

SO-CO-NY GASOLINE & MOTOR OIL

Uniform Quality—Best Results

STANDARD OIL CO. OF NEW YORK—26 BROADWAY

MILITARY BRIGADES FOR BACK AT WARRIOR VETERANS

Two Regiments of Infantry to Curb Any More Outbreaks in Illinois Klan War

Herrin, Ill., Feb. 11.—Two regiments of Illinois National Guard, mobilized for duty in Williamson County, are on the march. These are the 432d, Chicago, and the 130th, composed of Downstate troops.

The two regiments are under command of General Milton J. Foxman, commander of the third division. He will have absolute authority in putting down violence growing out of the Ku Klux Klan's activities.

Mr. Foxman, who has been in force prohibition in Herrin, Martin and other trouble centers of the county.

It was learned today that four thousand members of the United Mine Workers of America, working in the vicinity of Herrin, are planning to walk out because they have discovered that members of the Ku Klux Klan have been working with them.

The constitution of the United Mine Workers of America says no member shall be a Klansman.

General Foxman is expected to declare martial law upon his arrival.

BOTH SIDES WANT SOLDIERS.

Adjutant-General Black after conferences with military leaders at Herrin, has expressed a desire for martial law. Military power is the only force either side can respect following the constitutional developments of the past few months.

In a clash at Herrin between the two factions last Friday, Constable "Club" Graham was killed and a deputy sheriff wounded.

KLAN IN CONTROL.

Klansmen rushed into Herrin and within an hour had control of the situation under leadership of Glenn Young.

Sheriff George Calligan was so scared, as was Mayor John Anderson and a score of other prominent men, that they fled from the town.

Being in the crowd that called for death on the street after his had been summoned by messenger from home to the Municipal Lodge, Calligan had fled two of the negroes with blood from his face when the third moved three bullets through his back.

NEGRO BANDITS SLAY PHILADELPHIA LAY

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—Anglo-Negroes were said to be on the street when he attempted to resist three negro hoodlums. Witnesses to the shooting said that Negroes had killed two of the negroes with blood from his face when the third moved three bullets through his back.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

At the police of preference is to continue, it must rest upon a sound basis, the report continues.

UNFAIR TO OTHERS.

The method of granting pensions to veterans without requiring them to contribute to pension funds is also pointed out as being unfair to all other classes of workers.

Mr. Loring believes that the public is interested in this matter of preference that an appeal referendum may be involved.

Such action, he declares, might carry a repeal of all preferences.

The song of health

Eggs are a healthy, appetizing food. Feed your family plenty of eggs. Be sure that they are fresh.

A few vigorous hens of good breed will supply you with an abundance of strictly

RED BOX TO START FOR SOUTH
It will be a case of watch and wait a week from today. Our local Red Sox grab the rattler for Hot Springs and we can read the dogs of the scribbles and figure out Boston's chances in the flag fight.

SPORTING AMERICAN

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND TEAM HERE
Friday and Saturday of this week the Abegweit of Charlottetown, P. E. I., will be the attraction at the Arvins. Manager Brown has looked this outfit to tackle the Boston College sextet on Friday night, while on Saturday the B. A. A. will be their opponents.

MA THEWSON FATHER OF ANTI-BONUS BILL FOR BALL PLAYERS

NATIONAL LEAGUERS TO TAKE UP MEASURE

By THOMAS L. CUMMISKEY

An anti-bonus revolution, proposed by Christy Mathewson, president of the Braves, will be passed upon at the National League meeting in New York tomorrow. It aims to prohibit the offering of money as bonus for players who reach a certain high mark in hitting or in pitching winning games.

Mathewson, whose ideals have expressed themselves often for the elevation of the standards of the game, believes that players should be paid according to skill and ability and that they then should give their best at all times.

His resolution, however, does not prohibit a bonus being given for good behavior. He has in mind that such inducements act as a leash on some temperamental or unruly players.

The practice of putting bonus clauses in contracts, it seems, does not always work for the best interests of the game. A player, seeking a certain percentage in hitting, may want to play for himself rather than the team in many cases.

Then, too, a pitcher with a few games to go to reach the "bonus mark," may want to get a "soft" team over and then, and if sent against strong clubs frequently, may get the idea that he is being conspired against.

Another bad feature about the bonus clause is that "good teams" are on the part of opponents, with nothing really at stake as regards their chances of finishing in a certain position, may be inclined to go easy on a pitcher after a few games that will mean big money for him.

The idea of halflayers are such "they will not 'lie down,' but may get next themselves overmuch, and the manager of the opposing team might 'go easy on him' by sending a second string pitcher against the bonus-bunter."

When the resolution was proposed at the National League meeting in Chicago in December, some players expressed hostility, and were warning how Mathewson, long a player himself, should be sent to reduce their earnings.

But now that Dutch Heister, he is a club official. There seems to have been a change of outlook recently, however. If the clubs will do the right thing and give the players a fair contract commensurate with ability, it will be a force for good. It calls for fairness by club and player alike.

"Dutch" Heister, the Brooklyn's star outwiper, was in a squabble with President Christy Mathewson of the club last year over a contract offering certain bonuses for such and such a number of victories.

The poor playing ability of the Brooklyn club was a milestone around "Dutch's" neck. A weak infield cost him a number of games. He naturally became disgruntled.

There have been other cases where the bonus, figured to be an incentive, has turned out to be a boomerang when the pitcher did his best and his team fell down backing him up. Also, in hitting, a manager might want a sacrifice, or a ball hit to a particular spot, or the player to "wait out" a pitcher, and the result would be bad feeling in consequence of not being allowed to smash the ball for a hit.

President John Heydler of the National League believes Mathewson's resolution has a good chance to pass. It is a constitutional change, and could not be acted on in the December meeting, as such a change requires two months' notice.

If you like a mind-gripping, soul-stirring story with splendid plot read "Chickie" just starting on page 12

Hockey League Standing

EASTERN DIVISION
	Games				Goals
	W	L	T	For	Against
N. A. A.	5	2	1	15	10	10
Western N. C.	4	3	1	14	9	10
New Haven	4	4	0	10	15	15
Maple	3	5	2	10	19	19
WESTERN DIVISION
Pittsburgh	12	4	0	60	17	17
St. Paul	8	2	0	50	23	23
Cleveland	9	7	0	40	22	22
Evansville	8	4	0	32	25	25
Duluth	4	10	0	25	43	43
Minneapolis	4	11	0	16	39	39

PADDOCK READY TO APOLOGIZE

PADDOCK READY TO APOLOGIZE TO A. A. U.

Charlie Paddock, who was declared ineligible to compete for a place on the U. S. Olympic team, has opened his fight for reinstatement.

He is on a lecture tour that has carried him from the Pacific coast during the past three months. He is now in Boston.

On his way to Atlantic City for a lecture, Paddock was a guest of William C. Prout, president of the A. A. U.

Paddock's trouble dates back to a track meet in Paris last summer. Paddock made the trip without the sanction of the A. A. U., and upon his return he is alleged to have made certain charges against the union pure rogues that started a war which resulted in his disbarment.

Paddock is ready to make amends. He wants to compete in the Olympic trials next June, but before he can do so, a special committee of five which was appointed to consider his case must vote favorably on his application.

President Prout says the case is not settled and probably will not be for a few weeks at least. Paddock will return again today for another conference with Prout.

Paddock is ready to apologize to the A. A. U. for the charges he made and it is expected that Prout will be ready to lift the bars for him.

VINCENT RICHARDS IS WINNER OVER ALONZO

New York Feb. 11 (Universal)—Playing some of the best tennis of his career, Vincent Richards, youth and tennis star, defeated Manuel Alonzo, Spanish Davis cup champion, 6-11, 6-2, 6-4, in the Heights Canteen invitation tournament.

Richards had no easy time disposing of the electrifying Spaniard, but was forced to extend himself throughout the match. The first set was a long and bitterly contested duel. Finally three placebos and a dose out by Richards gave Alonzo the set, 11-9.

In the second and third sets Richards took no chances and with Alonzo, away from the terrific struggle in the first set, drove the ball across the net for point after point. The Spaniard put up a game battle, but was no match for America's "No. 4."

INTERNATIONAL BACK TO DRAFT

New York Feb. 11 (Universal)—At an informal meeting the International League voted to go back into the draft agreement with the major leagues. It is reported.

An announcement to this effect, it is said, will be made at its meeting here today.

If true, the action of the International league and a five year squabble that has held many promising young players in the minor league with the major league bidding for their services.

It will mean, too, the breaking up of Jack Dunn's famous Baltimore team, five times winner of the International pennant.

TWO MORE RECORDS SMASHED AT MIAMI

Miami, Fla., Feb. 11 (Universal)—Seventeen world's records were broken in the six-day water carnival which has ended.

Miss Agnes Deraghty, of the Women's Swimming Association of New York, broke a record in the 100 yard breaststroke and equaled another.

FRANCIS ROSSI IS SHOWING CLASS

Francis Rossi, one of the best of our noble lightweights, has shown plenty of ring class, which is why he is being dogged by super Frank Gemmao de-see that whenever the name of the Brooklyn youth is mentioned our New England lightweights get cold chills down their spinal columns.

Jem Driscoll, one of the greatest of English boxers, one of the many boxers Rossi has.

Reduced Prices On Rattlers and Overcoats means a big savings for you.

Burke & Co., Tailors 21 South St., Boston 5

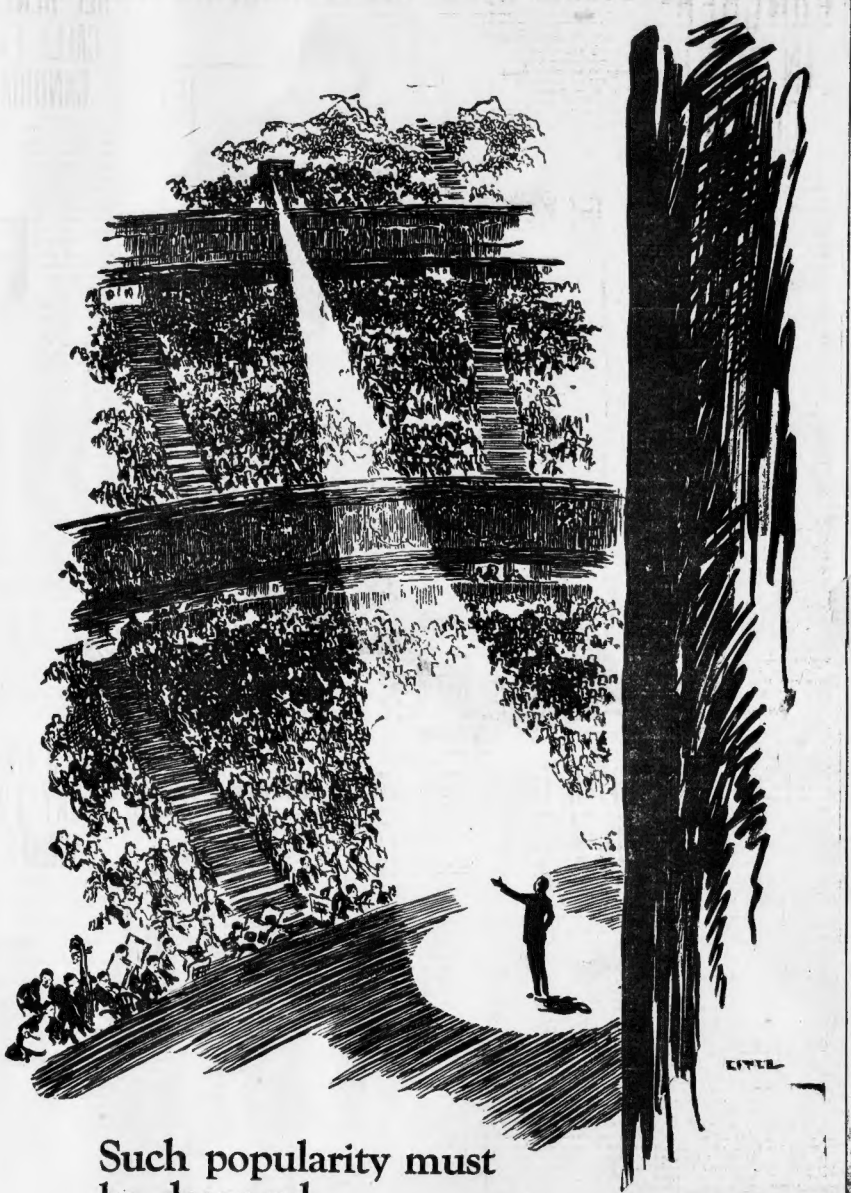

CHICAGO LEADS IN GOLF CLUBS WITH 100

Chicago, Feb. 11.—With the organization of the Fairlawn Club Chicago became the possessor of an even 100 golf courses and the leading golf center of the United States.

The first golf club on Chicago's list was organized in 1882, and since then the growth of the game has been tremendous. Chicago also has the most municipal courses of any city in the United States.

other world figure in the 50-yard dash. The other record was set by Miss Club, the backstroke queen, in the 100-yard dash.

The eleven girl swimmers who left last night for New York and have taken part in the great meet in Chicago.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck—there is no royal road to the spotlight. Popularity, today, means "delivering the goods!"

Last year broke all records for the number of Chesterfields smoked.

Why? Because Chesterfields make good! There are loads of ordinary cigarettes—smokers want something better!

Better quality—proved by better taste—that's why men are turning

by thousands from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

Chesterfield

CIGARETTES

They Satisfy—millions!

YOUTH SAYS THAW'S COUNTESS SISTER LURED HIM WITH GOLD

GUEST ON GAY TRIP TO PARIS

Wedded Man Admits Gifts Are True in Wife's $500,000 Hurt Balm Suit

New York, Feb. 11.—With the gaiety of Broadway and the Montmartre, Paris, as the background, Emmanuel V. Modica, youthful husband of the Brooklyn girl who is suing the Countess Roger de Perigny, sister of Harry K. Thaw, for alleged alienation of affections, related an extraordinary tale.

Putting one cigarette after another, the dapper, black-eyed Modica nonchalantly asserted that so far as he was concerned, charges made in his wife's $500,000 suit were true. According to Modica, who is a handsome, chestnut-haired, olive-skinned chap with dark, Mediterranean eyes, he met the Countess Roger de Perigny in a picture show. It was one of those accidental contacts, not due to the heart of romantic young men and he wasted no time in making the most of it.

PICKED UP HANDKERCHIEF. Mrs. Carnegie was seated beside him and dropped her handkerchief. He returned it to her and they engaged in conversation. They strolled out on the street, walked to some

HARRY THAW'S SISTER NAMED IN TRIANGLE

TWO WOMEN AND THE MAN
Mrs. Madeline Helen Modica (at left), alleging that Countess Margaret Thaw Carnegie de Perigny, sister of Harry K. Thaw (at right), alienated the affections of her husband, Emmanuel Victor Modica, (inset).

and few blocks and made an engagement for the next day. Modica didn't keep the engagement but later he kept the fashionably dressed lady whose name he hadn't yet learned in another movie theatre. She sat down beside him a second time and the events of the previous meeting were duplicated. They then strolled through the park and as she left him she placed in his palm a black-bordered card. He looked at it and read:

"Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie."
MEET FREQUENTLY. They met frequently after that. It was up and down Greenwich Village cabarets. Mrs. Carnegie always met the extremes of the occasion and frequently she made him outright gifts of money. When she went to Europe last September, she gave him $100 and he went alone on the same boat.

In Paris they did Montmartre and the Longchamp race together. Mrs. Carnegie was lucky—and proportionately lavish. All in all she gave him as much as $10,000—$2,000 of which he built his home in the Bronx. "It was a wonderful life for me," said Modica, with a shrug and a sigh. It was enough, he implied, to make any man leave home.

RETURNED ALONE. Finally Modica came back to America alone. A short while after he arrived he learned that Mrs. Carnegie had married Dr. Peirce, Modica's determination to hold nothing back was not shared by any of the other parties in the case.

Mrs. Madeline Modica, who is suing Countess Roger de Perigny for alienation of her husband's affections, made no further statement. At the Countess' hotel in Paris she was told she would be out of town until Monday when she must show cause in court why she shouldn't explain her alleged relations with Modica and also hand over to the court the 250 letters and telegrams she is alleged to have written him.

WAITING UP FOR P. O. EMPLOYEES IS CHARGED

Democrats Being Removed to Aid G. O. P. Campaign, Says Reform Paper

Washington, Feb. 11.—Universal.—The Post Office and Rural Free Delivery Service under Postmaster-General New is being organized for the forthcoming presidential campaign, according to charges made by "Good Government," organ of the national civil service reform league.

The accusations are contained in a report by the Indiana Anti-Spoils League, which investigated a large number of alleged political removals of postal employees in that state. The method being followed, according to the report, "is to trump up trifling charges of misconduct in office, often anonymous, send a partisan inspector, the head of politicians who pursue this unscrupulous policy, who find the accused Democrat guilty, while Republicans who have committed the same offenses remain undisturbed."

"Then a new man is appointed from the three highest on the list," said the report. "The result is that the Democrats are being removed from the service and the Republicans are being put in."

The report also charges that the Post Office is being used as a "bureau of political espionage" and that the service is being organized to "aid the G. O. P. in the coming campaign."

JUST A LITTLE PARTY, HER DEFENSE PLEA

MRS. MARY L. B. CANDLER

Sharing their political and personal interests with the district in furthering their political and personal interests with the district in furthering their political and personal interests with the district in furthering their political and personal interests with the district in fur-

NEW CANDLER SENSATION PROMISED

Arrest of Aged Soft Drink King's Young Wife to Be Aired in Court

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 11.—The raid on an apartment and arrest of two men and Mrs. A. G. Candler, wife of the former Governor and Coca-Cola king, was made at the request of "friends of the Candler family."

Other court proceedings may follow the former Governor's recent successful defense of a $100,000 breach of promise case. Mrs. Candler has not been seen at the Candler residence since her arrest with W. J. Stoddard and G. W. Keeling, around a quart bottle that contained a "small amount of liquor."

They are to appear tomorrow to court.

Stoddard, 44 years old, is president of the National Candler and Ivory Association. Keeling, a dealer in brick, is one year older. Mrs. Candler, a public housewife, until her marriage to the multi-millionaire last June, is 24. Candler is 73.

'LITTLE MOTHER' DIES FROM BURNS

Brooklyn, Feb. 11.—Rosa Strang, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Strang of this city, died of burns received when her clothes caught fire as she was preparing breakfast for three younger children, James, eight years old, extinguished the flames by throwing water on her, but not before Rosa had received major burns on her head and body. Mrs. Strang, who is seriously ill at a hospital here, was not told of the child's death.

Corns

Never Use a Knife!

It is so easy to get rid of a corn. Blue-jay ends them. Stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Does away with dangerous itching. Get Blue-jay at your drugstore.

Blue-jay

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hour

For real effectiveness, this old remedy must be used every day, no matter how long and deep the cough.

You'll never know how quick a bad cough can be removed until you have used Pinex. It is so simple to use, and so effective, that you can be ready in a minute. Just take a small glass of water, add a few drops of Pinex, and you will find the cough disappearing. It is so simple to use, and so effective, that you can be ready in a minute.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated cough remedy. It is a most valuable concentrated cough remedy. It is a most valuable concentrated cough remedy. It is a most valuable concentrated cough remedy. It is a most valuable concentrated cough remedy.

PINEX
For Coughs.

Great for Rheumatic Pains and Swellings

JOINT-EASE
When rheumatism settles in any of your joints and causes agony, distress or misery, please remember that Joint-Ease is the one remedy that brings quick and lasting relief.

It matters not how chronic or aggravated a case of rheumatism is. Joint-Ease and relief is sure to follow.

Joint-Ease is for joint troubles only and is a clean, harmless preparation that doctors everywhere are recommending.

JOINT-EASE

SPRINK YOUR STOVE THE EASY WAY WITH THE FAMOUS

BLACK-IRON STOVE POLISH

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP
Grandfather took it 50 years ago.

PISO'S COUGHS

Use PISO'S—this prescription quickly relieves children and adults. A complete course, 10 days, 25¢.

COUNCIL NOT ON JOB, FIN. COM. SAYS

Neglected Duty in Park Square Land Deal, Is Charged

Charge by implication that the Boston City Council failed in the performance of its duty, when it neglected to place squarely upon the shoulders of Mayor Curley all responsibility for the Park Square investment of $157,745 in land for a new headquarters building for the Finance Commission, the Finance Commission recommends that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

In a letter addressed to the City Council, Chairman Michael H. Sullivan of the Finance Commission reviews the history of the move for a new Police Headquarters, beginning with the purchase of a legislative act authorizing Boston to borrow not more than $100,000.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

The Police Commission recommended the Park Square location, and the Finance Commission recommended that hereafter the City Council initiate appropriate proceedings when prices for land appear to be excessive or not in the public interest.

Telegraph Briefs

Washington.—Net profit of $329,413.74 has been made by the United States from the sale of public lands, believed to be a record revenue from this source, compared with all other countries. The figure covers the period dating from the beginning of the country's history up to June 30, 1923.

TAKE OVER BIG PULP MILL IN NOVA SCOTIA

New York, Feb. 11.—The River Pulp Co., Ltd., representing the York and Chatham interests, has purchased the assets of Carleton Brothers, Ltd., consisting of pulp and paper mills in Nova Scotia.

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic Coughs and Persistent Colds Lead to Serious Lung Trouble. You Can Stop Them Now with Creomulsion, an Emulsified Creosote That Is Pleasant to Take.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twelvefold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the bacteria and inflammation while the creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the bacteria, kills the bacteria and stops the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

NEAL O'HARA

Humorist, Satirist, Philosopher, the One and Only Neal O'Hara. Joins The Traveler Staff

FRONT PAGE news for Traveler readers! Neal O'Hara has joined The Traveler staff.

That's absolutely official. Beginning Monday, Feb. 11, under the above caption, there will appear in The Boston Traveler the sparkling articles of New England's famous humorist. If you don't know Neal O'Hara already, you're going to learn something to your advantage, as the lawyers say in their ads.

Neal O'Hara is a sharp-shooter at every-day life. He takes the day's news while the printer's ink is still damp and he takes the humor and the fun around with the funny phase of it. He's liable to write about cabbages, kings, cauliflower and the Pope.

One day it's all he writes. The next day satire. Not to mention humor, wise cracks, parody and burlesque. You can't tell what subject he'll jump on any more than you can tell which one he'll lay off of. But Traveler readers are going to be sitting very pretty, like the man that didn't know whether he was going to get shortcake or coffee parfait for dessert.

HUMOR IS UNIVERSAL AND HE SERVES IT
One thing you can always be sure of, however. Whatever topic Neal O'Hara writes he handles with venom and without gloves.

Neal O'Hara says in an epigram what it takes Vox Populi and Constant Reader about a half a column to say. Writing like the words of a poet, he writes and you'll find they're all neat and no useless by-products.

That's why Neal O'Hara is quoted all over the country. You've seen more than one of his wise cracks at the movies—in the Literary Digest's "Fun" column. He's had his humor—and still has it—blossom in the humorous pages of "Life" and the Saturday Evening Post. His satire on the income tax is republished in this year's compilation of what's best while in American humor.

Neal O'Hara is no clown and nobody's fool. He is a shrewd observer of the passing show. And if anything gets by him it's only because he simply has to have a little sleep now and then.

Traveler readers will find that he is not a superior critic or high-toned commentator on world events. Neal O'Hara is simply the man in the street. He writes to the man in the street can understand him. But his humor is so true and human that the street may be either Beacon or South Street in Boston. For humor, after all, is universal—and humor is what O'Hara serves up.

HE SWINGS A MEAN BON MOT
He has a satiric slant on fraud and pose. He swings a mean bon mot. But you can learn more about O'Hara in the reading of one article than you could in two columns of description like this.

The Traveler has forged another strong link in its chain of writers in acquiring Neal O'Hara for its staff. It is proud to add him to its personnel and he is proud to be a worker on the brightest newspaper published in Boston. Neal O'Hara's gleaming humor will make The Traveler a happier paper to read.

Read daily articles of humor on all topical matters next Monday, Feb. 11, under the above caption. We've said a lot of fine praise for The Traveler's new writer. But if you think we've over-estimated Neal O'Hara, cut this out and check us up.

CREOMULSION
Advertisement

"SPECIAL DELIVERY" for Mrs. Laurent

2075 8th Ave., New York City

This is a story that goes back to the days before REM could be gotten at any New York drug store. Mrs. Laurent's little, irl Pearl was sick with a bad cough. Nothing was doing her much good. Naturally, she was worried.

Then Pearl's Grandma came to the rescue. As Mrs. Laurent tells it:

"When Pearl was visiting her grandparents in Philadelphia last winter she caught a bad cough and cold. Usually her coughs hang on so that I could hardly believe it when Mother wrote me she was all right again. Mother had given her REM and just a half a bottle of it had stopped her cough."

Mother was so enthusiastic about REM that later on, when Pearl was back in New York, and needed some of it again and I wasn't able to get it in New York yet, she sent me a bottle by special delivery.

Pve never seen anything that relieved a cough as quickly as REM does."

The surprising popularity of REM for coughs is due very largely to grateful users who have passed the good word along.

REM contains, among other things, a special ingredient (two expensive for old-style, slower-acting cough syrups) that makes it cling to your throat as you swallow. Spreading over the sore, inflamed membranes in a soothing, healing film, it quickly quiets the cough.

REM doesn't taste bad and it contains no Opiates. Your druggist has REM—ask him for it. You can have your money back if it doesn't help you. You're the Judge and Jury.

Introductory Size Bottle, Only 60c Economy Size, $1.00

Your Drug Store Has REM—ask for it

Advertisement

*The Story of a
Boston Girl*

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

★ LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION ★ IN NEW ENGLAND ★

COUNTLESS HAS NO MORE

Continued on Page 12.

evidence of "the curse of the Pharaohs."

RADIO BRINGS 'PASSING SHOW' FROM SHUBERT TO YOUR HOME

Are you ready?
Then get set.
Tune in for WNAI.
We are going to see the PASSING SHOW from the Shubert Theatre.
Broadcast by The Shepard Stores.
Tonight at 8.15.
If you have imagination you can easily see the conductor standing in the orchestra before his augmented group of seated musicians ready to tap his baton on the music rack before him.
"Tap tap," he goes.
SIT AT ATTENTION.
All sit at attention.
Then he waves and on comes the first blast of the catchy music.
You live in a lucky era.
Stop and think of the days when grandma and grandpa went to a theatre once or twice a year. Maybe they saw "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Ten Nights in a Barroom," or some such theatrical vehicle. They were lucky to come home in a hack, to sit fast in a more or less comfortable seat and yet they applauded vigorously and had an hilarious time.
SHEPARD'S ENTERPRISE.
Tonight you sit in your home and see by RADIO the PASSING SHOW, a gorgeous Winter Garden musical and a hundred beautiful girls, by and by and sure, a comedy with high started comedians, beautiful of face and limb. Sprightly. Can such things be, one might say for the radio, except with the family, the

BETTY GREY

LOUISE BLAKLEY

VIOLA STEWART

MAJORIE ROSS

ETHEL CHEPPELL

JOSEPHINE HURLEY

Shepard Stores you get the musical show trials of the season brought to you.
Tune into the country of the show and see the most beautiful girls of the season.
A whole week of absolutely free entertainment, instructive, fascinating, wholly enjoyable. The whole history of radio from 1898 to the present moment spread before you glowingly, vividly—in motion pictures, lectures, sending and receiving demonstrations, exhibits of the oldest and newest in radio, actual broadcasting events, factory demonstrations. In truth, the whole world of radio before your very eyes in one stupendously complete spectacle.
"Above All, Don't Miss the Radio Show!"
Some of the Other Events of the Radio Show—
—Leading theatrical stars in actual broadcasts in full view of all visitors.
—Movies three times daily.
—Army and Navy exhibits.
—Demonstration of high speed sending.
—Historical exhibits of sets and parts dating back to 1898.
—Westinghouse exhibition of the manufacture of WD11 and WD12 tubes.
—Exhibition of home-made receiving sets entered in contest.
—Opportunity to consult R. C. A. and Shepard Engineers on your radio problems.

6 Winter Garden Beauties At The Shepard Radio Show!

Tuesday—six glorious Winter Garden Girls will personally give away 100 tickets for the Tuesday Evening Performance of "The Passing Show" at the Shubert Theatre to the first 100 purchasers after 2 P. M. of Ray-O-Vac 45 Volt "B" batteries at 5.00 each. One ticket only to each purchaser.
This event will take place at the Radio Show on the fourth floor of The Shepard Stores, Boston.

THE RAY-O-VAC "B" BATTERY Perfect for Reception! Unusual in Construction! Longer in Life!

1. Individual cells built in sealed zinc cans of chemically pure uniform metal.
2. Water and acid proofed egg crate partition.
3. Rubbery insulating compound covering outside walls and bottom of individual cells.
4. Rubbery insulating compound between cells.
5. Water-proofed outer container.
6. Patented positive spring clip terminals.
7. Cloth binder in upper seal.
8. Top seal of red wax.

$5

The exclusive construction of Ray-O-Vac "B" Batteries combines a number of characteristics which easily distinguish them as leaders in the "B" Battery field. Eight features (as given above) are outstanding. The cells are rigidly held together in a solid block. All connections are positive and permanent. The cells are thoroughly insulated. The Battery is compact and water and moisture proof.

Sold at the Radio Show, 4th Floor, The Shepard Stores.

The Six Beauties from "THE PASSING SHOW" Are—

Betty Gray
Louise Blakley
Viola Stewart
Majorie Ross
Ethel Cheppell
Josephine Hurley

These girls are among the most beautiful in "The Passing Show" and they guarantee a smile with every free ticket. You sure will enjoy seeing them at The Shepard Radio Show and then later on the stage at the Shubert Theatre.

Remember!
TUESDAY at 2 P. M.

The Radio Show Itself

A whole week of absolutely free entertainment, instructive, fascinating, wholly enjoyable. The whole history of radio from 1898 to the present moment spread before you glowingly, vividly—in motion pictures, lectures, sending and receiving demonstrations, exhibits of the oldest and newest in radio, actual broadcasting events, factory demonstrations. In truth, the whole world of radio before your very eyes in one stupendously complete spectacle.

"Above All, Don't Miss the Radio Show!"

Some of the Other Events of the Radio Show

- Leading theatrical stars in actual broadcasts in full view of all visitors.
- Movies three times daily.
- Army and Navy exhibits.
- Demonstration of high speed sending.
- Historical exhibits of sets and parts dating back to 1898.
- Westinghouse exhibition of the manufacture of WD11 and WD12 tubes.
- Exhibition of home-made receiving sets entered in contest.
- Opportunity to consult R. C. A. and Shepard Engineers on your radio problems.

The Radio Show—open daily from 9 to 5:30 every day this week—Fourth Floor—The Shepard Stores

The Shepard Stores
Tremont Street Winter Place Winter Street Temple Place
BOSTON

The Radio Show—An educational and wholly interesting event held under the auspices of the Radio Corporation of America.

ABOUT YOUR BEAUTY

By Maria Jeritza

Famous Prima Donna of Metro-
One of the Most Beautiful
Women of the Day.

THIS fringed curtain of the eyes—that is what a great part of the eye-liner and eye-liner. And how important these fringed curtains are to the multiface and beauty of the eye they protect.

You know what clean, beautiful curtains mean to the appearance of the windows of a dwelling house. In fact, when you pass a house where the curtains are dingy, with fringed, unclean fringe, you are likely to form a poor estimate of the decor in that home.

Has it ever occurred to you that the curtains of your eyes, which are as ridiculous as the eyes themselves, need much attention each day to keep them at their best?

After a long day's work, a woman needlessly strains her eyes at work or reading in a dimly light. What wonder that both lids and eyes feel against the discomfort imposed on them by fatigue, an unrelaxing eye, the symptom of inflammation.

If you wish beautiful eyes, eyelids and eyelids or better than, please to keep them as clean as you can. Get them to discontinue and neglect.

It is now you use your eyes all day at close application, rest them by closing them whenever the chance comes. Moments or hours spent with eyes in a relaxed state or to afford this opportunity. And moments spent with eyes as by no means wasted, for while you rest your eyes you can always think.

The very idea you need may flash into your mind when you thus rest your eyes.

And at night, let your eyes rest. Read about it, when you rest your eyes. In this way both will benefit. If you, however, makes sure of a rest that is bright, well placed, and not too dazzling. Cleanliness is essential to the beauty of the eyes.

The lids are dust screens as well as light screens. They catch and hold dust, a grain of dust that would otherwise enter the eye and cause discomfort and irritation to its cells. Therefore, your eyelids should be bathed too carefully at night.

An eyewash is satisfactory for this purpose. Fill it with warm, not hot, water and add, if you wish, just a drop or two—no more—of the following refreshing and soothing, a horseradish and solution.

Hold the cup close to each eye in succession for about half a minute and then close the eyes and let the liquid be absorbed. This will cleanse and refresh your eyes, eyelids and eyelids, and so add to their beauty.

As the fringes of your eyes thicken and even if not, try rubbing them at night with your own pure, colorless oil of mercury ointment. This should stimulate their growth. Or, yellow vasoline, another ointment derived from a mineral, will give the same result.

General attention to the health of the body is much for the beauty of your eyes. While harmonious living for will do still more by giving them pleasant changes to their environment.

(Copyright, 1934, Premier Publishers, Inc.)

CORRECT MANNERS

By Mrs. Cornelius Beekman

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN
(1) When should the candles on a birthday cake be lighted? (2) Is it proper to cut and serve the birthday cake? When dining out, should the lady tell the gentleman what she wishes or should she give her order direct to the waiter? (4) At a chop suey house is it proper for the gentleman to pour the tea? PEGGY.

THIS candle should be lighted in the kitchen or in the dining room, try to light the candles in the kitchen or in the dining room in the last part of the evening. In the last part of the evening, try to light the candles in the kitchen or in the dining room in the last part of the evening.

It is proper to cut and serve the birthday cake. When dining out, should the lady tell the gentleman what she wishes or should she give her order direct to the waiter? (4) At a chop suey house is it proper for the gentleman to pour the tea? PEGGY.

Copyright, 1934, Premier Publishers, Inc.

POLLY AND HER PAS

A Class in Concentration

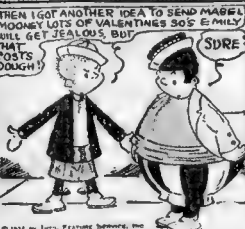

By Cliff Sterrett

US BOYS

Isn't Skinny Silly? Sure!

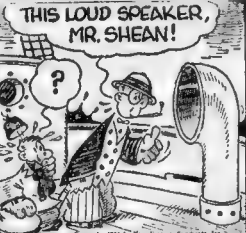

By McNamara

GALLAGHER AND SHEAN

(Sing the words in the tone of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean)

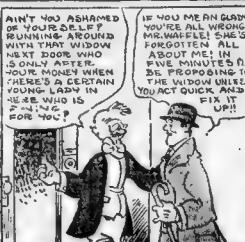

By Jo Swerling

MARRIED LIFE

Stalling for Them

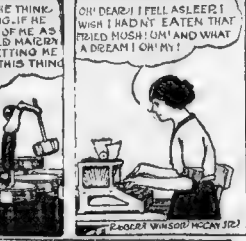

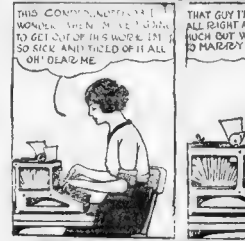

By Zere

RABID REVERIES

Monday Morning Blues

By Winsor McCay, Jr.

THE NEWLYWEDS

Up to Lover to Get a Horse

By Charles McManus

MEDBURY SAYS--

By John P. Medbury

SEVERAL flags have been planted in the Interstate Commerce Commission that the little house along the tracks at railroad crossings are too small. They are perfectly right, but they should have been better designed.

THE company should build a house with an eleven-foot roof over the crossing.

THIS would give every flagman a country club of his own.

HE could go swimming and play tennis between trains.

AVERAHO man loves a home with a lot of ground, and railroad tracks don't make a very pretty place.

HOUSES they have now are so small that a flagman can flag a train while he's lying in bed.

ONE flagman said he was afraid to go to sleep with his mouth open for fear he would wake up and find it filled with mail sacks.

ANOTHER flagman had asthma and wheezed so loud that the engineer on the 12th Century Limited would stop and listen to him.

THINK little shacks are so small that if the switchman has a dog, the dog has to go outside to wag his tail.

YARD in front of them isn't big enough to raise a garden, let alone anything that has to be done.

AND every flagman wants to see something better than a flag.

ADVANCE 1934 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN

By Beatrice Fairfax

Regaining a Friend

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:
At the place of business 2 years ago I met a young man whom I fell in love.

Our company gave a dance and he asked me to go, but for no reason whatever I refused. Since then he has acted indifferently toward me. I would like to regain his friendship. I am anxious and he is five years my senior.

MISS R.

OF course, the man has treated you as an indifference, and if he had acted otherwise after your snubbing him you would have no reason for him. Sure you were rude, but gracious enough to forget the whole thing and be as simple and friendly as usual.

Such a desire to come to see you or merely by showing your friendliness in your attitude toward him. I was so in love with him at the time. I don't worry about his wanting to see me in return for your action. He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

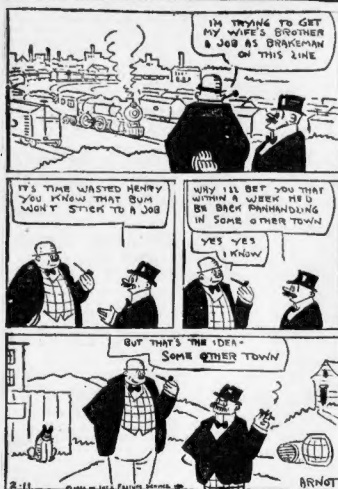

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

He probably knows that.

HELPFUL HENRY

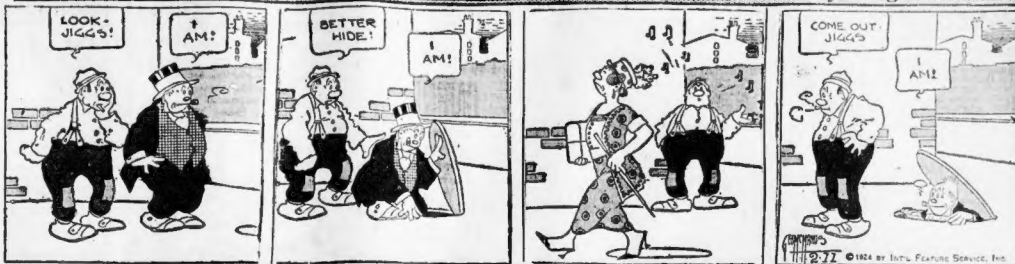

By Arnot

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Visits the Cyclone Cellar

By George McManus

ABIE THE AGENT

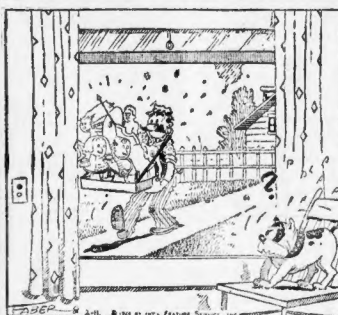

Not All Profit

By Hershfield

THEN THE FUN BEGAN

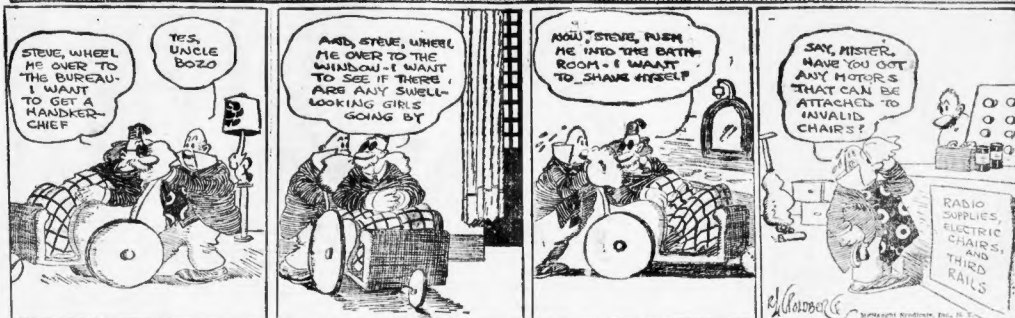

By Faber

GOLDBERG'S CARTOONS

Steve Himself—Uncle Bozo Is Quite a Care

By Rube Goldberg

LET THE WEDDING BELLS RING OUT

JERRY ON THE JOB

Two Guys With but a Single Name

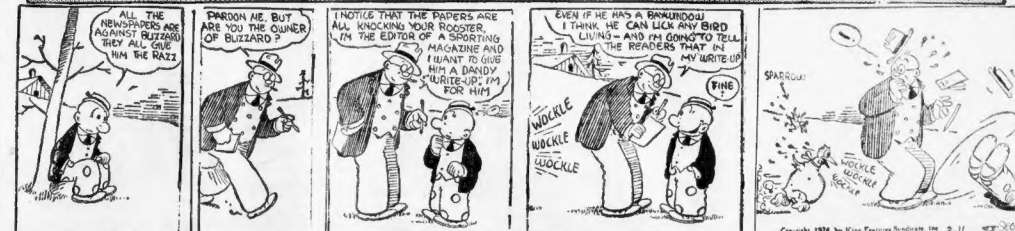

By Hoban

THE THIMBLE THEATRE

Enter—the Fearless Fowl

By Segar

KRAZY KAT

Soak Him With a Brick

By Herriman

Kabibble Kabaret

Copyright 1924 International Feature Service, Inc.—Reprinted by U.S. Feature Office by HENSHFIELD
DEAR MR. KABIBBLE,
IN CALLING ON A GIRL, SHOULD I BRING HER FATHER A BOX OF CIGARETTES AND HER MOTHER A BOX OF CANDY?
TWO BOXES OF CIGARETTES WOULD BE MORE APPROPRIATE.

